

UCLA CENTER FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE PARTNERSHIPS

CCCP SCHOLARS PROGRAM
2020-2021

2020-2021 Applications Open

Program(s) available for students applying to transfer for Fall 2021 and beyond.

In its commitment to social justice and diversity, UCLA CCCP works to increase transfer rates and success of underserved community college populations by holistically equipping students with skills and knowledge of available transfer pathways to empower them to become self-advocates and leaders in their communities.

Program Benefits:

- Current UCLA Student Peer Mentorship
- Quarterly Saturday Academies (Fall, Winter and Spring)
- Coaching and Assistance on the UC Application and Personal Insight Question
- Major and Career Exploration
- Networking Opportunities

& much more

How to Apply:

- ❖ Review requirements and select a summer program
(Complete List of Programs: Summer Program Options)
- ❖ Complete Transfer Admission Planner
(CCCP will verify completion before continuing to review your application)
- ❖ Complete CCCP Online Application online application including appropriate short answer essays

*Students must be residents of California or the US (including AB 540/undocumented students).
International students who hold a current US Visa (F1 or other visa) are not eligible.*

For more information and any questions including but not limited to: assistance with completing the application, requirements, questions about which program to apply for, please contact Jewel Bourne, LAVC Program Coordinator via email (Due to safer at home guidelines) at jbourne@college.ucla.edu.

Available for Zoom & Phone Appointments

•