Response:

The LAVC Monarch Bookstore has been in operation for over 60 years. It is owned by the college and provides a service for the campus. It is located in the Campus Center Building. It is a resource for faculty and staff and carries recommended textbooks and supplies that are necessary for student success. The Monarch Bookstore also sells emblematic merchandise, a wide array of school supplies and stationary as well as sundries, food beverages and confections for the college community. Throughout the years it has encountered a lot of changes and challenges and has been financially sustaining for the most part.

As a department we collectively take pride in the services we provide and will continue to introduce new industry trends and partnership into its operation so as to remain successful. The Bookstore staff provided valuable contribution and cooperation of its past and future service goals in professional manner.
