

Workshop Descriptions

Workshops 10:40 - 11:40 am

Level 1: How do we get started? – Fireside Room

Rebecca Stein

Designed for disciplines near the start of the SLO process, this session will include the basics of the SLO assessment cycle (e.g., how to design rubrics, how to document the assessment process). To get the most out of this session, bring examples of course SLOs from your discipline!

Level 2: We have our rubrics, now what? – Cafeteria

Vivian Mun and Rafael Arias

Have you written your outcomes and rubrics but aren't sure what to do next? Do you have data but don't know what to do with it? This session will lead you through the nuts and bolts of actually conducting and analyzing an assessment (e.g., how to use rubrics to analyze the data, how to close the assessment loop). To get the most out of the session, bring examples of course SLOs, student work (if available), and rubrics from your discipline!

Level 3: Using data to improve student success – Monarch Hall

Sally Raskoff, Darby Southgate, and Michelle Fowles

Have you already completed at least one SLO assessment cycle and want to learn more about how data from a variety of sources can be used to improve student learning, teaching, and institutional effectiveness? This session will show how the analysis of data can be used to inform our instructional decisions and help improve student success.

Workshops 12:45 - 1:45 pm

Fireside Chat on Student Success – Fireside Room

Achieving the Dream coaches Martha Romero and Kriesta Watson, LAVC President Sue Carleo, and Academic Senate President Josh Miller

Participate in an informal conversation about how the Achieving the Dream framework will enhance LAVC's student success efforts. This will be a follow-up to the general session with time for questions and answers.

How Can Student Services Improve Your Retention and Success Rates? – Student Services Center Multipurpose Room (2nd floor)

Panel of Student Services faculty, staff, and students

Learn how these services can play an integral role in your students' success: Career/Transfer Center, Counseling, Services for Students with Disabilities, Health Center and Psychological Services, Service Learning, and more. Followed by Q & A.

40 Things You Can Do To Retain and Engage Students – Cafeteria Conference Room (CCR)

Deborah Kaye, Professional Development Director, and Renee Berg, Child Development Faculty

Discover strategies – based on sound pedagogical practices – that will motivate students and help them succeed. These include promoting help-seeking behaviors, building connections, making class relevant, and using active learner-centered strategies. Share ideas with your colleagues.

My LAVC Portal Training – PDC (Bungalow 83)

S. Khaled Hussain, Distance Education Coordinator

Use the MyLAVC portal to make announcements, hold discussions, and upload classroom materials. Save paper and time while ensuring that your students have access to your course information, even when they're absent.

SLO Working Session: Improving Student Success through Assessment - Moving the Process Forward (repeated at 1:55 pm) – TBA

Vivian Mun and Rebecca Stein

Have rubrics you need to write or data you need to analyze? Use this session as working time to complete SLO-related tasks! Members of the SLO team will be available to answer your questions and help you with the process.

Workshops 1:55 - 2:55 pm

The Finish Line – Cafeteria

Sheri Berger, LAVC Curriculum Chair, and Charmagne Shearrill, LAVC Compliance Officer

Participate in this board game to take on the roles of students and experience college in their shoes. Following the game there will be discussion about the multiple barriers our students face, structural inequities at LAVC, and ways we can help students succeed by addressing these barriers and inequities.

Student Discipline & Grievance Faculty Boot Camp – Cafeteria Conference Room (CCR)

Dr. Annie G. Reed, Associate Dean, Student Services

Learn everything you need to know about student discipline and grievances in this interactive workshop, including what you CAN and CANNOT do. Using real-life classroom situations, the session will provide you with strategies to create an atmosphere conducive to learning.

Issues Facing Our Student Veterans – Student Services Center Multipurpose Room (2nd floor)

Panel of experts, including representatives from the Soldiers' Project, GLA Veterans Outreach Team, the EDD, LAVC Veterans Services, the PCC Veterans Center, and student veterans

More and more veterans are entering community college after serving in the military. Find out about the problems they face and ways to help them adjust to civilian life and succeed in college.

Effective Classroom Communication – Faculty Lounge

Duane Smith, Speech Faculty

How can you communicate more effectively in the classroom? How can you get your students to speak up in class? Learn strategies you can use to get results and encourage class participation.

SLO Working Session: Improving Student Success through Assessment - Moving the Process Forward (12:45 pm session repeated) -- TBA

Vivian Mun and Rebecca Stein

Have rubrics you need to write or data you need to analyze? Use this session as working time to complete SLO-related tasks! Members of the SLO team will be available to answer your questions and help you with the process.
