News & Events at LAVC

STARS Presents Pathways to Success Workshop: How to Get Where You're Going

LAVC STARS (Strategic Team for the Advancement and Retention of Students) will offer a "Pathways to Success: How to Get Where You're Going" workshop on Monday, March 15 from 1-2:30 p.m. in the Fireside Room. Facilitated by Rebecca Stein & Scott Weigand, this will be the first of three sessions highlighting LAVC's new program pathways. Faculty, staff and students are invited to attend. Lunch will be provided to individuals who RSVP. To RSVP, contact Professional Development at (818) 947- 2712.

Mental Health and Wellness Day Fair for Faculty & Staff

LAVC, the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) and Horizon Health are holding a Mental Health and Wellness Day Fair for LAVC faculty and staff on Tuesday, March 16 from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. in Monarch Hall and Fireside Room. This event will feature health education, health screenings for blood pressure, blood glucose, cholesterol checking, and body mass index, and healthy snacks such as bottled water and fresh fruit. There will also be spa station with scalp massages, back massages and manicures in the Fireside Room. For more information, contact Raul Gonzales at (818) 947-2606.

New Free Program for Children Ages 2-4 at the LAVC Family Resource Center

The LAVC Family Resource Center offers “Creative Experiences for Young Children” play sessions for children ages 2-4 every Tuesdays from 4-5 p.m. in Bungalow 49. These sessions offer developmentally appropriate activities designed to help prepare young children for preschool. For more information or to RSVP, contact Gary Huff of the Family Resource Center at (818) 778-5612.

“Save Our Education” Town Hall with California State Assembly Candidate Nayiri Nahabedian

The AFT 1521 and the Political Action Coalition (PAC) will hold a “Save Our Education” town hall event on Wednesday, March 17 from 1-2 p.m. in Monarch Hall. Valley College students will have an opportunity to ask Nayiri Nahabedian, Democratic candidate for the 43rd District of the California State Assembly, tough questions about the future of their education at this town hall discussion. This event held on the heels of a statewide day of protest on March 4 will focus on the California state budget crisis and will provide an opportunity for Ms. Nahabedian to address student concerns and convey her plan for protecting public education. For more information, visit www.standup4cc.com or email lavcpac@yahoo.com.

An Invitation to the “Greening Valley College” Town Hall with LAVC President Carleo

LAVC Professional Development, LAVC Sustainability Group, Valley College Accelerated Program (VCAP), the VTEA Grant and Job Training will present a “Greening Valley College” Town Hall Meeting on Friday, March 19 from 11:30 a.m.-3 p.m. in the Cafeteria Conference Room. Dr. Carleo will discuss LAVC’s progress in implementing sustainable practices and policies. We will look at our campus “green” report card, and have an informal discussion about how to create a greener Valley College. All participants will receive lunch and a reusable gift bag. There are only a few spots left, so RSVP today! Faculty, staff and students are all invited to attend. To RSVP, contact Roana Thornock at (818) 947-2455 or thornorm@lavc.edu.
