

Do you have any students in your classes who appear to be putting in the effort but are not performing to their potential?

Learning Skills 40 –Introduction to Learning Disabilities –has openings for the Spring semester!!!

In this course, students will be assessed to determine their academic strengths & weaknesses, as well as whether they meet the criteria to receive accommodations provided by the DSP&S office.

For more information, please refer your students to L.A.V.C's Learning Disability Specialist, Bonnilee Kaufman, at 818-947-2703 to determine if they are eligible for this course.
