

Los Angeles Valley College
Course Level Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

Subject Name, Course Number, and Course Title: Child Development 172: Introduction to Careers in Child Development

Course Objectives: (List the course objectives as they appear in the course outline of record.)

- Assess personal interests as they relate to working with children and families
- Compare career and educational opportunities in Child Development.
- Evaluate career options by examining important aspects of professionalism as they apply to the Child Development field.
- Design a personal career path with educational goals, available resources and timeline plan.

Establish 1–2 course level student learning outcomes and indicate how each SLO will be assessed.

Course Level Student Learning Outcome	Assessment Measure
Prepare a personal career path in the field of Child Development	Students will write a report laying out a personal career path. Reports will be evaluated using a rubric.