

Los Angeles Valley College
Course Level Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

Course Name and Number (e.g., Anthropology 101): English 83

Course Title: College Conversational English As A Second Language

Course Objectives: (List the course objectives as they appear in the course outline of record.)

Analyze writing for content, development, organization and style, and formulate logical inferences.

Apply pre-writing strategies by effectively using personal experiences to support a thesis in an essay.

Write a well-constructed basic essay with supporting paragraphs, clear topic sentences, effective word choices, and appropriate language.

Demonstrate correct use of basic parts of speech and verb tenses.

Establish 1–2 course level student learning outcomes and indicate how each SLO will be assessed.

Course Level Student Learning Outcome	Assessment Measure
Students will be able to write a basic essay.	Assigned essay and a rubric will be used.