

Los Angeles Valley College
Course Level Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

Course Name and Number: Journalism 218

Course Title: Practical Editing

Course Objectives: (List the course objectives as they appear in the course outline of record.)

- A. Evaluate and utilize various writing styles.
- B. Compare and contrast various newspaper types.
- C. Understand and utilize the skills involved with investigative reporting.
- D. Be able to perform advanced research techniques.
- E. Perform advanced copy editing skills.
- F. Be able to design and layout newspaper pages.

Establish 1–2 course level student learning outcomes and indicate how each SLO will be assessed.

Course Level Student Learning Outcome	Assessment Measure
Produce or edit news and feature stories, opinion columns, photographs, page layouts and/or Web pages for publication in a timely manner and under deadline pressure.	Students will produce articles for campus newspaper and Web site and a rubric will be used to evaluate these stories.