

Los Angeles Valley College
Course Level Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

Course Name and Number: Law 3

Course Title: Civil Rights and the Law

Course Objectives: (List the course objectives as they appear in the course outline of record.)

- A. Recognize the United States Constitutional System
- B. Analyze the purpose and the process of constitutional rights
- C. Define and evaluate the Bill of Rights
- D. Analyze how protections for civil rights and civil liberties are applied within the framework of American federalism
- E. Examine the connection between democratic politics and constitutional rights
- F. Analyze how constitutional protections affect both majority and minority ideas and practices
- G. Explain both the agreements and the conflicts that are generated by the application of constitutional rights
- H. Analyze the subject of constitutional rights for its own intrinsic merit

Establish 1–2 course level student learning outcomes and indicate how each SLO will be assessed.

Course Level Student Learning Outcome	Assessment Measure
Critically appraise and evaluate the Bill of Rights	Sample essay: Analyze the antecedents of the Bill of Rights; vis-à-vis the British Bill of Rights and the Magna Carta. A grading rubric will be used