Dear Student,

Welcome to History 11/Political and Social History of the United States I. You have registered for the online section 7055 or 7075 and I am writing to provide you with important information before we begin the class. The class is entirely online. Although I will be available online feel free to visit my campus office hours. The class begins August 29 so be sure to have the textbook and log in by August 29.

Course Overview

This course covers the main events, actors, and themes of United States History up to 1865. While doing this we hope to develop and improve critical thinking, analysis, and writing skills through the study of United States social, economic and political development.

Getting Started

You will need to log on to our course website no later than August 29. If you do not log on and participate by 11:59 pm, PST, August 29, you may be dropped from the course as a no-show. I will make the class available a few days before the semester begins if the college has entered students into the class shell in Canvas by then. Be sure to read the syllabus and posts in the Cyber Café Module in Modules in Canvas. (LAVC is no longer using Etudes, the new LMS is Canvas.)

For those new to online classes and Canvas or for technical questions, tutorials, or other questions related to online education see Valley Virtual:

http://lavc.edu/virtualvalley/

To access our class website:

https://ilearn.instructure.com

Username: Student ID# (no spaces or dashes)
Password: 88monthday of birth So for a student born Jan 1 880101 (no spaces or dashes)

Success:

In order to succeed, you must have regular access to the Internet. You must log on to our class site to retrieve and submit assignments and to participate in class discussions at least twice a week. If you will not be able to participate in this manner, this is not the course for you.
Please note that we will all progress through the course together, at the same pace. This is not a class in which you can complete all the work for the semester in the first week or make it all up in the last week.

The success of this class depends on the willingness of everyone to participate in discussions regularly, and to share ideas in writing. All of our discussions will be asynchronous (not at the same time), not synchronous (e.g., live chat, instant messaging). This will allow you to participate at times suitable for your schedule (with deadlines). Exams will be conducted online and are discussed in the syllabus.

Technical requirements

See Valley Virtual above.

Required Texts

The following required books are available in the college bookstore:

- American Stories: A History of the United States by Brands, et.al. volume 1 3rd Edition
- Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass, An American Slave by Frederick Douglass

If you have any questions always feel free to send me an email at the address below. I look forward to working with you over the fall semester.

Sincerely,

Rick Murray

Email: murrayrf@lavc.edu

Responses to emails will be returned within 24 hours. Be sure to enter a subject (11 7055 or 11 7075) in the subject line.