PD Trainings and the Faculty Flex Obligation

- Professional development is education or training that hones or develops professional skills, appropriate to the position one holds.
- Professional development requirements for faculty
- Flex Hour obligation per academic year
- 33.5 for full-time faculty
- half of the assigned hourly classes (3 unit class = 1.5 hours of PD)

The Vision Resource Center(VRC)

- VRC, an online site for training, is currently available to all LACCD employees.

- <https://visionresourcecenter.cccco.edu/>

- One can do online trainings through it.

- One can join interest groups to keep up with current information relevant to those groups.

Realizing the Vision for Success

Introducing the Vision Resource Center, a new portal dedicated to providing the exceptional support needed to meet the goals and commitments of the Vision for Success through the Guided Pathways framework.

Participate in online learning and join communities of practice around the concepts and skills necessary to ensure our students and our colleges achieve their full potential.

Access the Vision Resource Center with an existing Professional Learning Network account or create a new account.

Cornerstone is coming...

- Once Cornerstone is live, the flex forms will be obsolete!
- You can get your PD reports anytime you log in:
- How many hours you need
- How many hours you have
- Specific trainings that you have done

Cornerstone is coming...

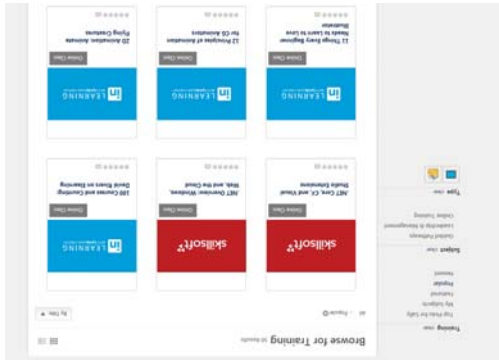

- Cornerstone is another online system that will be modified to be specific to our college needs.
- (Jeanne & Sally will be setting it up this Spring.)
- All activities that we do in VRC now will be moved into Cornerstone when it becomes live.
- The really good news is that all flex will be housed within Cornerstone.
- We will register and track online AND on-campus workshops through it.
