

CAREER/TESTING WEBSITES

After College

Includes resources for students looking for jobs, internships and work abroad.

<http://aftercollege.com>

Career Builder

Post resumes, find both U. S. and international jobs. www.careerbuilder.com

California Careers Info

Links to ONET, (the occupational database) and features Career Zone which offers free self-assessment tools, descriptions of 900 jobs, occupational videos and job openings in California. <http://www.californiacareers.info/>

Career Journal

Includes resume articles, salary information, and job hunting advice.

www.careerjournal.com

Career One Stop

This site gives information on how to get started with a job search, indicates growing fields and industry trends. www.careeronestop.org/

College Board

Provides a listing of colleges throughout the U.S. It also includes school catalogs and college profiles. www.collegeboard.org

College Source

Provides college catalogs for 2 years, 4 year, graduate, international, and professional schools. It also includes links to a variety of testing and preparation sources. Schools can be selected by different criteria including tuition, enrollment, and degrees offered.

www.collegesource.org

California Virtual Campus

Offers a course catalog of online classes in California. www.cvc.edu/

Diversity Employers

This site offers career planning and job search strategies plus career and industry reports. Articles by African American writers also are available. http://black-

collegian.com

Embark

Access information on how to select a college or graduate school including business, law, and medical school. The site also has financial aid and scholarship information. It also provides information a list of classes to help students improve their scores on the SAT, GRE, LSAT, and MCAT. www.embark.com

Employment Development Department

Offers job placement information in both English and Spanish. The site includes information on how to create your own resume. It also lists job clubs, career centers, and has a link to America's Job Bank. www.edd.ca.gov

Employment Guide

Features articles on how to make career decisions, and how to prepare for an interview. It also lists job fairs and has a salary calculator. www.employmentguide.com

Equal Opportunity Publications (EOP)

Highlights magazines related to diversity.

Students can subscribe and read sample articles from the magazines. EOP will forward resumes to employers at no cost. www.eop.com

Fast Web

Provides scholarship and financial aid information. Students can conduct a customized scholarship search. www.fastweb.com

Human Metrics

Identify your personality type by taking the free Human Metrics personality assessment. After completing the assessment students will have a Meyers Briggs Type Inventory code which describes their personality type. The site also offers a small business entrepreneur profiler for a small fee. www.humanmetrics.com

Hospitality Jobs

Locate jobs in the hotel and resort industries. Students can post resumes online. www.hospitalityjobsonline.com

Jobs and Careers Magazine

Features information about a wide range of careers. Students can access occupational videos. Personality assessments also are available. www.jobsandcareersmag.com

Job Hunt

This site links to Career Builder and Job Star. It has a large list of professional associations. Students can take the Career Key assessment for free. The other assessments are offered for a fee. www.jobhunt.org

Job Hunters Bible

Provides a variety of career assessments and career interest games. The Holland Self Directed Search assessment is offered for a fee. The site also has a link to unusual jobs and provides excellent career advice. www.jobhuntersbible.com

Jobs

Lists jobs throughout the U.S. and internationally. www.jobs.com

Monster College

Locate jobs and internships, search for mentors in your state, and the salary indicator also is available. <http://college.monster.com/>

My Perfect Resume

Provides company profiles, an online workshop for writing cover letters, tips on how to do an internet job search, and information about networking. Students also can access the A-Z index which includes a variety of career resources including occupational descriptions and a listing of job banks around the country. www.myperfectresume.com

Job Star

Excellent site for resumes (includes functional, electronic, and chronological) offers a link to ONET (the occupational database), and “What can I do with a major in...” The site includes job leads, job fair listings and an electronic librarian to help students locate information about jobs. www.jobstar.org

Monster

Access jobs by state and category, network through email with people in the U.S., and obtain career advice. The site also provides self-assessment, and gives suggestions on how to answer interview questions. www.monster.com

Now Hiring

Offers free resume writing service and salary wizard. www.nowhiring.com

Occupational Outlook Handbook (OOH)

This site provides the complete content of the OOH which is published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. The OOH has information on over 200 occupations. It describes the training, typical work activities, and salary range for jobs. www.bls.gov/ooh

O*NET

This is the occupational network database which provides detailed information on more than 200 occupations. It is an excellent source for learning about the nuts and bolts of occupations. The occupational descriptions describe skills needed to do the job, values that are important, and activities pertaining to the field. Job outlook and salary information also are listed. Http://online.onecenter.org

Saludos

This site links Hispanics with career opportunities including the ability to post resumes. It offers tips for selecting a career and mastering the interview process. Students can access company profiles, search the internship database, and read articles related to specific careers. www.saludos.com

Super Pages

Search online for businesses listed in the online yellow pages. Listings are also available in Spanish. www.superpages.com

The Balance Careers

Provides articles about the world of work. Students can access internship opportunities by typing internship in the search box. www.thebalancecareers.com

US Bureau of Labor Statistics

Provides wages by area, state, and county. The site has a link to the Occupational Outlook Handbook which is an excellent source for career information. www.bls.gov

USA Jobs

Includes a listing of federal government jobs, and tips on creating a resume, also provides career assessments. www.usajobs.gov

Vault

Features an online career library of industry guides including law, business and banking. The books are available for purchase. Students can download excerpts from the books. www.vault.com

Volunteers

The Los Angeles Corporate Volunteer Council lists volunteer opportunities at businesses of all sizes in the LA area. <http://www.volunteerlosangeles.com/>