Valley Glen, CA—Los Angeles Valley College (LAVC) announced today that it will be offering 35 short-term, late-start class sections in the Spring 2015 semester; late-start classes start March 30 and April 13. A broad selection courses including UC/CSU transferrable and pre-transfer classes will be offered online, on campus, and at selected high school campuses.

"We are very excited to be able to offer late-start courses as an option for our students," said Dr. Erika Endrijonas, president of Los Angeles Valley College.
