SHOOTING DEATH AT LOS ANGELES VALLEY COLLEGE WAS NOT CAMPUS RELATED

Two suspects arrested by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department

VALLEY GLEN, CA – A shooting incident occurred at Los Angeles Valley College on Saturday, January 25, 2014. The incident was not campus related and there were no classes or campus activities taking place when it occurred. The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department is currently handling the investigation, and two suspects have been taken into custody. The campus is open, and winter session classes and college services resumed on Monday, January 27, 2014.

According to a press release by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, "the choice of the college parking lot was random."

To ensure the safety of our college community, there will be an increased presence of College Sheriff's personnel on campus over the next few weeks. To anonymously report a crime or suspicious activity on the campus, you may contact the LAVC Sheriff's Tip Hotline at \(818\) 778-5678.
