

ONLINE TUTORING AT LAVC

Free online tutoring services are available to LAVC students through the Academic Resource Center (ARC) and NetTutor.

ACADEMIC RESOURCE CENTER (ARC)

When Valley students need help with their class assignments, their first stop should be the ARC!

- ARC tutors receive extensive training and most are current or former LAVC students who are familiar with instructor's assignments and expectations
- Students who use tutoring services earn higher grades in their classes
- Live online tutoring on Mon-Thurs from 10-6 and Fri/Sat from 10-1
- Weekly workshops for Math and English are led by LAVC Professors to provide students with extra support
- Proof of attendance and access to recorded sessions for review are available

The ARC offers:

- General Tutoring Center: provides help for Statistics 100, 101, Chemistry, Physics, Music, Accounting, Spanish, and more
- Math Lab: provides help with homework assignments and test preparation for all levels of math classes
- Writing Center: provides help with essays and writing for all classes and ESL students through live tutors and paper drop-off

NETTUTOR

When students need help outside of the ARC's hours of operations or for subjects not covered by the ARC, NetTutor is another great online tutoring resource for students.

- NetTutor was selected by the Foundation for California Community Colleges for the California Community Colleges Online Education Initiative
- As a third party company, NetTutor provides trained tutors to cover a wide variety of subjects

NetTutor offers:

- Live tutoring for wide variety of subjects with 24/7 support for English, Math, Statistics
- Drop off your paper for review
- Drop off a question: ask a question and view a response within 24 hours
- Class locker: watch previous live sessions and review feedback of dropped off questions

- Both are accessible through Canvas and are free online tools students can use
- To access the ARC's online tutoring services, click on LAVC Online Tutoring in the Canvas Navigation menu
